Cédric Page obtained his Master of Law at the Universities of Fribourg and Durham (UK) in 2007 with a specialization in European law, as well as in Commercial, Banking, Finance and Tax Law. He was admitted to the bar in Fribourg in 2010.

Being a perfectionist and eager to respond even better to the needs of his clients, he was admitted as notary public in the Canton of Fribourg in 2013. The activity as notary public is the core of his activity.

As attorney, Me Page assists his clients, mostly corporations, in all fields of Business, Contract, Competition and Tax Law. His main areas of focus are corporate restructuring, including mergers and acquisitions.

As notary public, he has the knowledge and experience to draft and prepare all documents necessary for the concerned transactions. He is thereby able to offer comprehensive services to his corporate clients.

He also advises private clients in the fields of property rights, real estate, Inheritance Law and Family Law. He is able to proceed with all necessary notarization and certification of documents.
